INT. HOSPITAL - PATIENT ROOM - DAY

Dr. Clark enters with an Intern to find patient SAMANTHA CRANE (35ish) and her husband DAVIS. The room has been transformed into a Zen sanctuary: The lights are dim, the blinds closed, soft Enya-type music plays in an attempt to keep Samantha from having yet another seizure.

Start

DR. CLARK

Hi Sam!

SAMANTHA

Dr. Clark? Where's your baby belly?

Sam speaks softly, so as to not get herself too excited.

DR. CLARK

It turned into a baby boy.

SAMANTHA

Congratulations!

DR. CLARK

I'd show you a picture, but he's so cute, it might give you another seizure.

(to Intern)

She's had a bunch of them.

SAMANTHA

Not recently, though. I think the yoga music helps.

Davis, her husband, nods enthusiastically. Too enthusiastically. Samantha smiles at him.

SAMANTHA (CONT'D)

He hates the music.

DR. CLARK

Well hopefully after this procedure you won't need tinkly music to keep you calm, you can flip out like the rest of us.

SAMANTHA

And have a baby, like you. It's so impressive. I don't know how you handle everything.

DR. CLARK

Not sure I do either.

End

And we're off Samantha, smiling at Dr. Clark, relaxed and ready for surgery.
